

Short Bio

(44 words)

Elaine is the Award-Winning Thought Disruptor Speaker and creator of the T.H.I.N.K. Methodology. Her mission is to support you in elevating your workforce's performance, creating transformative results and developing your human potential using the T.H.I.N.K. methodology.

Medium Bio

(90 words)

Elaine is The Thought Disruptor Speaker and creator of the T.H.I.N.K. Methodology. These five thinking principles are game changers for individuals or organisations to excel in their performance, productivity and profits when applied individually or collectively.

She has spoken at over 200 events worldwide, and trained over 35,000 people including senior leaders, c-suite executives, and thought leaders in the power of transformational thinking and communication skills. She has been a former TEDx curator in London for three years and was featured in Forbes talking about TEDx.

Long Bio

(126 words)

Elaine is The Thought Disruptor Speaker and creator of the T.H.I.N.K. Methodology. These five thinking principles are game changers for individuals or organisations to excel in their performance, productivity and profits when applied individually or collectively.

She has spoken at over 200 events worldwide, and trained over 35,000 people including senior leaders, c-suite executives, and thought leaders in the power of transformational thinking and communication skills. She has been a former TEDx curator in London for three years and was featured in Forbes talking about TEDx.

Elaine is the founder of The MindSpeak Academy which supports experts and thought leaders, to increase their visibility, credibility and authority by amplifying their ideas, messages and stories in outstanding presentations and TED and TEDx talks.